PLEASE DISREGARD THIS STATEMENT IF ...

- you have already paid your account in full, mailed a check or have contracted with Nelnet Campus Commerce for a payment plan or
- your anticipated financial aid award for this term is enough to cover your entire outstanding balance (**see Financial Aid Students section below**) or
- your third party organization, agency, military education office or high school have made other arrangements with NOVA to pay your account in full

IMPORTANT NOTES:

You may make credit card payments online 24 hours a day. NOVA also offers a variety of payment options, including a payment plan. For more information about financing your education, visit <https://www.nvcc.edu/payment/methods/index.html>.

If you have questions regarding your account, please contact your campus Business Office or Financial Aid Office. Contact information is listed at the top of this statement.

It is your responsibility to make sure you have paid for all your classes in full, or dropped the classes you no longer wish to take, by our payment deadlines. You should not rely on the College to drop your unpaid classes for you.

If you do not pay your charges, you may lose access to College services.

- State law requires NOVA to collect outstanding debts, including sending your account to a collection agency, if necessary.
- If we must take this action, you will be responsible for paying your account balance, plus any additional fines, fees or charges that may be assessed in an attempt to collect this debt.
- Stop payment on a check, failure to pay tuition, or failure to attend class does not constitute withdrawal from NOVA, and does not void any charges on your account. To withdraw officially you must file a withdrawal application in a Student Services Center.

FINANCIAL AID STUDENTS: If you applied for financial aid you are responsible for ensuring your balance is paid in full, and that you have fulfilled all the requirements necessary to receive your disbursement. You may check the status of your financial aid through the MyNOVA portal by navigating to Student Center > Finances > Financial Aid > View Financial Aid, or by reviewing your To Do List on the right side of the page. Please consult your Financial Aid Award Letter and other documents provided by the College Financial Aid Office to make sure you understand your responsibility for paying any outstanding balance on your account not covered by your aid. As you know, your award may be reduced for several reasons, including because you choose to drop one or more of your classes.
